MEMORANDUM FOR: All IPIA Agencies

FROM: Pamela Beck Danner, Administrator
Pamela Beck Danner
Office of Manufactured Housing Programs

SUBJECT: Cooper Lighting Recalls Fluorescent Lighting Fixtures
Due to Fire Hazard

The Department has received a recall notice dated July 15, 2015 from the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) that initiates a recall of about 1.62 million (in addition to 27,000 units sold in Canada) Cooper Lighting, Portfolio and Utilitech fluorescent lighting fixtures in the United States due to a fire hazard. The socket can overheat, arc and melt, posing a fire hazard. [See attached CPSC Notice].

This information has been sent to you as IPIA agencies to notify your manufactured housing clients of this hazard. Some of your clients may have installed these fluorescent lighting fixtures in their manufactured homes. If these fluorescent lighting fixtures have been installed, please direct the manufacturer to start their Subpart I investigation immediately. If the product has not been installed, each manufacturer is still required to notify the IPIA of the result of their investigation. Please provide this office a written report of any findings within (20) days of receipt of this memorandum.

If a class of homes is identified, you should remind the manufacturer to provide the Department or its appropriate SAA with its plan of notification and correction for approval. You are reminded that pursuant to 24 CFR 3282.366(b), the IPIA must concur in the method used by the manufacturer to determine the class of potentially affected homes. To expedite this process, you may notify Miss Adrian C. Browner of the results via email at:

Adrian.C.Browner@hud.gov

The performance of your organization regarding this matter will be considered during your next annual performance review of your services as a HUD IPIA. Any questions regarding this specific product recall may be directed to Adrian C. Browner at (202) 402-4532.

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission is charged with protecting the public from unreasonable risks of injury or death associated with the use of thousands of types of consumer products under the agency's jurisdiction. Deaths, injuries, and property damage from consumer product incidents cost the nation more than $1 trillion annually. CPSC is committed to protecting consumers and families from products that pose a fire, electrical, chemical or mechanical hazard. CPSC's work to help ensure the safety of consumer products - such as toys, cribs, power tools, cigarette lighters and household chemicals — contributed to a decline in the rate of deaths and injuries associated with consumer products over the past 40 years.

Federal law bars any person from selling products subject to a publicly-announced voluntary recall by a manufacturer or a mandatory recall ordered by the Commission.

To report a dangerous product or a product-related injury go online to www.SaferProducts.gov or call CPSC's Hotline at 800-638-2772 or teletypewriter at 301-595-7054 for the hearing impaired.
